

A large rectangular area containing 15 horizontal musical staves. Each staff is composed of five parallel lines, providing a template for writing musical notation.

